THE CAREERS

Of Generals Who Wore the Gray.

"What has become of the Confederate Generals?" is a question very often asked but not so easily answered. Only those who have undertaken such a task can appreciate its immensity and trouble, but if it serves its purpose I shall be content.

To begin with those of the highest rank, of the five full Generals of the Confederate Army none survive. There were 21 Lieutenant Generals in the Confederate Army from first to last, and of these all were from the United States Army but four, namely, Richard Taylor, N. B. Forrest, Wade Hampton and John B. Gordon. Of them the following are living: James Longstreet, Stephen Lee, Early, Buckner, Wheeler and A. P. Stuart, besides two of those not full Generals, Major General living, and makes his home in New York City. W. W. Martin lives at Natchez, and is a railroad President. L. L. Lomax makes his home in Virginia, but is in the War Records Bureau here in Washington, says a writer in the Washington Post. Frank C. Armstrong, the best United States Indian Inspector the Government ever had, for he was born in the Choctaw Nation, is now Assistant Commissioner of Indian Affairs. Hume lives in Memphis, Tenn. Churchill has been Governor of Arkansas and lives at Little Rock. Colquhoun was Governor of Georgia, and is a United States Senator from that State. Daboll for a long time was a member of Congress from Tennessee.

Mackall, who was Brigadier General and chief of General Bragg's staff, who lived over in Fairfax county, Va., not far from Washington, for many years, died about 18 months ago. McGowan is a member of the Supreme Court of South Carolina.

W. H. Miles is a cotton-planter, magnate on the Yazoo river in Mississippi. Roger A. Pryor is a prosperous lawyer in New York. John G. Walker, who was down in Central America as Secretary of Legation under Dabney Maury, died last summer.

Holmes is in Mexico mining, and, I hear, making money. Of the three Lees who were Generals, Custis—who was Mr. Davis' Chief of Staff—is the President of the Washington and Lee College in Virginia. William Henry Fitzhugh Lee, generally called "Burr," who was a planter and member of Congress from the Eighth Virginia District, died three years ago. Fitzhugh Lee, a cousin of the others and a famous cavalry officer, owns the "Ravenworth" estate, on the Potomac, about 50 miles below Washington.

Robert Lee, the General's youngest son, who served in the ranks of the Rockbridge Artillery a greater part of the war, lived until recently on the James River, where he owns a handsome estate. He is more like his great father in appearance and manner than is any other Lee. He is now a resident of Washington. I have heard—though I do not know how true it is—that it is in contemplation by the Lees to remove the dust of their grandfather ("Light Horse Harry Lee") as General Washington always called him) from Cumberland, and bury it by the side of General Robert Lee.

Turning from the Lees to General Longstreet, the ranking Lieutenant General of the Confederacy, the world will be sorry to know he is getting on badly. He lives at Gainesville, Ga., and his house there was burned recently with all that was in it. General Early another of Lee's corps commanders, lives at Lynchburg, is in the practice of law and is well-to-do. Everybody knows what General Hampton, who once commanded all the cavalry of the Army of Northern Virginia, is doing, and that Major General M. C. Butler was once his colleague in the United States Senate from South Carolina.

Of the officers in General Johnston's Army of the Tennessee R. H. and Patton Anderson are dead. General Bate is United States Senator from Tennessee, and W. H., or "Red," Jackson, one of Forrest's division commanders, is living near Nashville on a magnificent plantation. General Wheeler, who commanded all of General Johnston's cavalry when he was only 28 years old, is a planter in Northern Alabama.

General Lawton, one of the Quartermaster Generals of the Confederacy is a leading member of the Savannah, (Ga.) bar, and General Gorgas, the Confederate Chief of Ordnance, died in Alabama a few years ago. General Cockrell, the ranking Confederate General from Missouri, now living, is the senior United States Senator from that State. E. C. Walthall, of Missouri, senior Major General from that State, is a United States Senator from Mississippi.

That Railroad.
The corps of railroad engineers who passed through town last week en route for Caney, have made a survey from Caney to the mouth of Elk Fork. The line leaves Caney near the farm of Hon. J. W. Steele, crossing the hill on the Licking river near the widow Adams property, following the right bank of the river to the mouth of Elk Fork. This, it is claimed, is very accessible, the grade being easy. No tunneling except where the road leaves Mr. Steele's, and this is a short one. The surveys on Wednesday were running a line from the point on Caney where they left the creek for the river to the mouth of Caney on the Licking river. It is thought that this will be an easy line to build a road over, and there is considerable talk of this being the permanent line, which, if the case, will make our nearest point on the road about two and one-half miles from West Liberty. Yet there is hopes that the road will be built on the first survey; if built from Morehead, which is almost a settled fact—Morgan Messenger.

A Four-Year Debauch.
It was a four-year debauch that caused the national headache. Present sobriety is not the cause of the headache. The Nation simply had to get sober of old of "delicious-tremendous" Reckless extravagance, bounties, subsidies, jobs, jingoism had to come to an end. The headache is disappearing and the national nerves are getting all right. We shall be happy yet, you bet, as Homer or some other poet has beautifully said—(Terra Haute Gazette.)

Ask Your Friends
Who have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla what they think of it, and the replies will be positive in its favor. Simply what Hood's Sarsaparilla does, that tells the story of its merit. One has been cured of indigestion or dyspepsia, another finds it indispensable for sick headache and biliousness, while others report remarkable cures of scrofula, catarrh, rheumatism, salt rheum, etc.

Hood's Pills are purely vegetable.

Court-Day.
There was a fair crowd in town yesterday and business was good among the merchants. There were some 500 cattle on the market, of a rather better quality than usual. Good feeders sold at from $1 to $1 25; common, from $1 25 to $1 50. The mule market was slow, with a large supply on the streets.

Ping hogs, as usual, went at the buyers' own prices.

A large tobacco barn filled with tobacco, belonging to Mr. John Benton, about two miles west of Mt. Sterling, was burned about 2 o'clock Saturday night. There was about 8 acres of tobacco in the barn, belonging to Mr. Benton and Van Tyler, his tenant. The tobacco was insured for $500 and the barn, which was valued at $600, was insured for $400. The fire was incendiary origin.

Holiday Excursions.
The Chesapeake and Ohio Railway announces excursion rates to all points on its line, as well as to points reached by its Cincinnati connections.

Apply to Ticket agents for dates of sale, limits and other information.

The Syracuse and New Yorks, the most extensive in the United States, have an evaporating surface of over 12,000,000 square feet.

TO CALIFORNIA.

The Land of Sunshine, Fruit and Flowers.

The Midwinter Exposition already much talked of, bids fair to rival the great fair that has just closed at Chicago—not in size, perhaps; but certainly so in originality, in richness, and in delighted visitors, who will unanimously agree that the Pacific Coast is worth many times the time and money spent to visit it, in its return of delightful climate, mellow sunlight, wondrous growth of vegetation, and the heretofore unwholesome network of industries connected with fruit raising, and the shipping of the product.

In order to give an opportunity for everybody to visit this wonderful land during the Exposition, California rates via the Queen & Crescent Route have been reduced, and every one may find the cost of such a trip within his means.

As for equipment, it is the only line by which you can travel from Cincinnati to San Francisco, absolutely without change. Tourist sleeping cars run every two weeks through from Cincinnati to San Francisco. Solid vestibuled trains twice a day from Cincinnati to New Orleans, where connection is made with Pullman sleepers daily to California points. Through car service to either New Orleans or Shreveport making direct connection for Texas, Mexico and California. From Louisville through trains make direct connection at Lexington with solid vestibuled service to New Orleans.

Send to us for further particulars. Ask Agents for rates, schedules and other information, or address W. C. Rinearson, G. P. A., Cincinnati, O.

A Fearful Collapse.

The new bridge being built over the Ohio river, at Louisville, gave way on Friday precipitating some fifty workmen into the river. About 10 a. m. while a strong wind was blowing it was noticed that the false work was giving to some extent, and that the "traveler" (the movable span) was swaying very much. Suddenly there came a crash, and the almost completed span was precipitated into the river with nearly all the workmen. The dead taken out numbered six and the injured sixteen, while sixteen more are numbered among the missing, all of whom are supposed to be killed. About 8 p. m. the same day a second span of the bridge left. Those who had charge of the work attribute the disaster to the strong wind. Outside authorities seem to be of the opinion that such a disaster could only have arisen from some culpable neglect in providing proper supports for the unfinished work. This bridge has been a singularly unfortunate venture. This being the first fearful disaster it has suffered.

THE ADVOCATE.

Some Good Christmas Recipes.

OX-TAIL SOUP.

Two large ox tails cut in small pieces, the big joints being divided. Fry a nice brown in butter. In the same butter fry a cut-up carrot, half a turnip cut in dice, a sliced Spanish onion and a slice of ham cut in small pieces. Lay all in a soup kettle, add two quarts of beef stock, pepper, salt and a sprinkle of thyme and sage. Simmer gently for three or four hours. Strain the soup, skim it carefully to get off the grease, return it to the fire, and when it boils, thicken with two tablespoonfuls of flour mixed perfectly smooth with two tablespoonfuls to mushroom catchup. Pick the meat from the bones and add it to the soup. Mash the vegetables through a colander and add them also. Boil up and serve.

CODFISH WITH OYSTER SAUCE.

Have four or five pounds of the middle of a codfish. Tie it in a cloth put in enough cold water to cover it, add tablespoonful of salt, let it boil gently for half an hour. Take out, remove the cloth and let the fish drain a few minutes. Serve on a folded napkin and garnish with fried oysters and parsley.

OYSTER SAUCE.

Take a cupful of milk or cream, the liquor from a couple dozen of oysters, a tablespoonful of butter, a pinch each of grated nutmeg and cayenne. Bring it to a boil; add a tablespoonful and a half of flour mixed smooth in a little cold milk. Stir carefully, so it will not be lumpy. Put the oysters in a frying kettle or strainer, and hold them for half a minute in boiling water. Put them in the sauce boat and pour the sauce over them. The addition of a little anchovy is a great improvement.

ROAST GOOSE.

Get a young goose, stuff it with forcemeat, lay a few strips of bacon across it, put a little boiling water in the pan and bake in a moderate oven, basting frequently. Care must be taken to have it thoroughly cooked. A goose is usually stuffed with sage and onions, the onions being boiled, chopped fine and seasoned with sage, salt and pepper. The giblets of the goose are to be simmered for an hour or two and the liquor added to the gravy.

SEASONED PUDDING.

One pound of stale bread without crust, soaked till soft in enough cold milk to cover it. Squeeze all the milk out. Add six ounces of finely chopped beef suet, three onions boiled and chopped; season with salt, sage, marjoram, thyme and a little grated lemon peel. Add three beaten eggs. Bake in a well-greased flat pudding tin. It will take almost an hour to bake and should be nicely browned on top. It is served with the goose and eaten with gravy poured over it.

SHELOIN OF REEF.

The shloin should be roasted in a moderately hot oven and basted frequently with the fat and gravy which drip from it. Time required will be a quarter of an hour for each pound of beef, and a quarter over. The English also boast their large joints of beef on a spit before the fire and in this way an excellent flavor is obtained. The gravy is never thickened, but served clear and free from fat.

YORKSHIRE PUDDING.

Five tablespoonfuls of flour, two eggs, a pinch of salt, milk enough to make a batter the thickness of cream (about a pint). Mix eggs, flour, and salt with a little milk till smooth, adding gradually the rest of the milk. Pour the batter into a large dripping pan which has been thoroughly greased with hot beef dripping. Bake in a hot oven fifteen or twenty minutes. Serve with the beef, with gravy poured over.

OLD ENGLISH PLEIN PUDDING.

One pound each of grated bread crumbs, nut chopped fine, currants and seeded raisins, half a pound of citron sliced thin, a grated nutmeg, the grated rind of two lemons, a spoonful each of ground allspice, mace and cinnamon, two wineglassfuls of wine and one of brandy, ten eggs well beaten. Dip a pudding cloth in hot water, wring it out, and butter it, put the pudding on a plate within it, trying the corners together well. Let the pudding boil four hours. Serve with a rich sauce. It is all the better if mixed several days before cooking.

MINE PIE.

This has ever held a place next in honor to the pudding, and was not the less welcome to Cavalier households because reviled as a "popish dainty" on account of the many fantastic forms—the manger, the Christmas star, etc.—in which skillful housewives of old England fashioned the pastry. Like its rival, the plum pudding, it gains rather than loses by being mixed some time before using.

Two pounds of beef, boiled and chopped fine, two pounds of suet, also chopped fine, four pounds of Pippin apples, pared, cored and cut small, two pounds of raisins seeded and chopped fine, the same of currants, (some old recipes use half a pound of dried cherries with a pound of raisins,) half a pound of citron sliced thin, two grated nutmegs, one ounce of ground cinnamon, half an ounce each of cloves and mace, the juice and grated rind of two oranges, one teaspoonful of salt, one quart of wine and one of brandy, (cidar is often used instead of wine), one wineglass of rosewater. Our grandmothers were very fond of this delicate, perfumed flavoring—Good Housekeeping.

Monthly Crop Report

Of Commissioner of Agriculture, Labor and Statistics.

FRANKFORT, KY., Dec. 13, 1893.

Mr. Henry A. Robinson, Statistician for the Agricultural Bureau at Washington City, speaking of the corn crop, says: "The November returns to the Department of Agriculture, of the rates per acre, makes the average for corn 22.6 bushels, which is the smallest yield reported, excepting those of 1886, 1887 and 1890, for the past ten years. The yield for these were 22.2, 22.1 and 20.7 bushels. It is less than the average for the ten years 1870 to 1879 by 4.5 bushels, less than the average of the succeeding decade, 1880 to 1889, by one and one-half bushels, and less than the average for the three years, 1890 to 1892, by a little over one bushel. In many places the corn crop of Kentucky is better than the farmers thought, before they commenced to gather it. I have heard a number of men say they were agreeably disappointed. There are a number of States that have made a larger yield per acre than we have, but the average is larger than that of the general average of the States. Our average is estimated at 28 bushels per acre. The quality is very fine. Per cent. as to quality 100.

WHEAT.

The condition of wheat at this time is very fine from most reports; some few complain that there has not been enough rain, and that the Heslian fly has made its appearance in the early wheat, but generally, the growth is reported good and looks well. The rain has been in sufficient quantity in many places to stir the branches to running or to fill up the ponds. The Casey county correspondent writes: "The weather very dry; wheat and rye not growing; grasses very short; have to feed all kinds of stock. The condition of wheat is placed at 98 per cent.

TObACCO.

The Government report in giving the yield of tobacco for 1893, makes the estimated yield per acre 693.3 pounds, as against 682 pounds last year and 748 pounds in 1891. This year's yield, as well as last year's is below the average for the last decade. Kentucky, which raises nearly 50 per cent. of all the tobacco grown in the United States, reports a yield of 705 pounds per acre. The average compared with last year's is a little short. Estimates at 95 per cent. The condition on November 25th is below last year. Per cent. 90. The quantity will fall at least one-third below last year.

HOGE.

The condition of hogs is reported good everywhere and well fattened, but for some unknown reason to the farmer, the price is badly off from what it was six weeks ago. There is certainly from all statistics of the country, a shortage in the hog crop, whether or not the packers are taking advantage of the short crop of corn and holding the price down, remains to be seen.

The condition of hogs compared with last year is 100 per cent.

CATTLE.

I inquired as to the average quantity of cattle for feeding this winter. The crop will be under an average. Some correspondents report them very scarce. Per cent. 90.

SHEEP.

STOCK.

The general reports to the condition of stock of all kinds is good, except some distemper among horses in McLean county. Per cent. 95.

The Forum

"The Greatest of all our Periodicals."

Every great subject is taken up by THE Forum when it naturally comes into public attention and is treated by the best authorities, without regard to parties or creeds. It will keep any thoughtful reader informed on the tasks and problems of the time, as no other periodical does.

To many thoughtful people, the price of THE Forum has hitherto been prohibitory; indeed all the great Reviews have been too high in price for the masses of intelligent readers. But now this number of readers of thoughtful literature—men and women who wish really to know what is going on in the world outside the narrow limits of particular sects and parties—is great enough in the United States to warrant so revolutionary a reduction in price. THE Forum discloses important subjects, but it is not dull. The literature of contemporaneous activity is, in fact, the most interesting of all literature. American citizenship implies that a man shall know the opinions of the foremost men and the latest great achievements in every direction of activity.

SIZE AND QUALITY UNCHANGED.

THE Forum is now as cheap as the magazines of more entertainment. THE CHEAPEST, THE LARGEST, THE BEST, OF THE GREAT REVIEWS.

A French physician, who has found that the majority of deaths upon the battlefield arise from the bleeding to death of the wounded while waiting for the surgeon, proposes that each soldier in the French army shall be taught where the arteries of his body are, and how to arrest hemorrhages from them. In doing this, he has found a use for that most useless of arts, tattooing: a small figure of some kind being tattooed over each artery, so that the soldier can at once see where to apply the ligature.

Everywhere about the valleys of New Mexico, invariably upon eminences, and usually upon high fast-flowing mosses or table hills, are the ruins of houses of the ancient semi-civilized Indian population that lived there and died the soil before the coming of the Spaniards, four centuries ago. The numbers of this old population can be only vaguely inferred by the numerous cobblestone foundations of their houses, still well defined above the surface of the ground, and by the debris of fallen walls which constitute mounds, grass grown and intermingled with occasional old stone utensils and countless fragments of pottery. This pottery when turned up by the spade is found to be as handsome and varied in color and design as when the village was destroyed or abandoned and every trace of its existence lost in the previous year. He who could read the rude markings on this, all symbolical, would have a story of ancient America as fascinating as that gathered from the vague oral mythology of the living tribes.—Ex.

Senator Martin's (Kansas) election is to be investigated by the Senate. The Committee on Elections Wednesday decided to take up the case in February, allowing the Hon. Joseph W. Ady, who contests Mr. Martin's election, thirty days in which to prepare his case.

The Morgan Messenger says Judge John E. Cooper is spoken of as a candidate for Congress. From the amount of favorable comment the simple suggestion has raised, we would say the Judge would find a most enthusiastic following in his home county should he become a candidate.

The General Assembly of Virginia Friday decided by a unanimous vote to investigate the charge that Hon. Thos. S. Martin to be United States Senator. Four of the members of the joint committee organized for the purpose voted for Gen. Lee in the caucus and three for the Senator-elect.

Bishop Cleveland Cooke, of New York, (Episcopal) has written an open letter to Monsignor Sattoli, in which he attacks the order of Jesuits hierarchy. He asserts that the Jesuits, headed by Sattoli, are behind the faction led by Lieut. Governor Sheehan in New York and that in Maryland and New York the order has made open war on the public school system.

Judge Thompson made a solemn decision this morning. Eight terms were before him and, as usual, each claimed to be a working man, and gave a detailed account of his travels in search of work, and when he worked last. One told of travels over a number of States in search of employment. As the best proof the Judge ordered a show of hands, and in default of hands on the palms they were adjudged vagrants and paid the penalty.—Louisville Post.

The sensational fact has been disclosed that copies of important dispatches engrossed to have been written by Secretary Blaine to Minister Stevens in regard to the latter's policy in Hawaii are missing from the official records in the State Department. One, in particular, is the reply to a letter from the Minister, written March 8, 1892, in which he revealed his knowledge of the plot for the Hawaiian revolution, ten months before that event, and asked for instructions. The delay in sending the correspondence to Congress is said to have been caused by the search for these missing documents.

Senator Voorhees on Thursday introduced a bill providing for the coinage of silver or silver nickel dollars at a rate not less than $2,000,000 monthly; the purchase and coinage of not less than $2,000,000 of silver per month when the seigniorage is all coined, and the retirement of all notes below $10 in favor of larger notes of $2 and $5 gold pieces, which are to be canceled. The resolution also provides for another international monetary conference. Mr. Voorhees explains that his proposed measure does not come before the Senate backed by the cordial support of the administration.

Col. J. C. S. Blackburn from Kentucky, "the gad, sir," has been making a number of mighty bad breaks lately. His last essay was ordering the closing of the Senate chamber to visitors, giving as his reason, when a protest was raised, that he objected to the "excursions" who infected the Capitol in thousands. He declares the Capitol was built for legislation, not for sightseers. The Hon. Mr. Blackburn seems to be filled with the idea that the people of Kentucky have built a strong fence between him and private life. He further seems bent on breaking into the field with the stag-horn. Go on, Joey B., you will get there.

Set a Bad Example.

"Sam Jones says he believes in living so that your children may put their feet in your tracks and be honorable," remarked Gus De Smith. "Yes," replied Hostetter McGinnis, "before Sam joined the church he used to walk on both sides of the street when he went home at night, and that is a bad habit for children to acquire."

WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 16, '93.

The Hawaiian question was taken up at yesterday's Cabinet meeting, and the subject of the correspondence to be sent to Congress was discussed. The President declared his intention sending his special message, together with the accompanying papers, early next week. The President is very anxious as to what has passed in Honolulu since the advice received by the Oceanic, but he has great confidence in Minister Willis, and is satisfied that the status quo has been maintained. Secretary Gresham advised the delay of the message until an answer is received to the dispatches sent by the Corvina, but President Cleveland wants to have the matter of his hands before the holidays.

Three more new States have been added to the Union, and these three are Democratic. The Republicans were very bitter against admitting the Territories of Oregon, Utah and New Mexico, but the Democrats were in the majority and they were admitted.

The House Committee adopted Representative Doolittle's resolution yesterday, for a commission to visit Nicaragua and inspect the canal, after hearing the report of Senators Morgan and Fry in its support.

The silver men in Congress intend to use a Voorhees Bill on the stump and in Congressional debates as a confession from the President's side of the question that unconditional repeal of the silver purchase law has failed to accomplish what it was claimed it would. The silver men believe they can make it an effective weapon.

The good work of cutting heads off is still going on. There is one very important office yet filled by a Republican which the President has delayed, for some unknown reason, to fill by a good Democrat, and that office is Public Printer. Mr. Palmer still holds on, but there are prospects of him having to give up the pie very soon.

Assistant Secretary of War took oath of office Thursday and entered upon his duties.

The Treasury balance yesterday was $29,192,004, a decline of $3,000,000 since December 1st. G. H. S.

Favored Citizens.

The negroes are the most favored citizens of Lexington. They pay very little of the heavy taxation that rests upon the white people, and yet they have schools furnished for their children, the benefit of the paved streets and street lamps, police protection, hospital accommodation and food and fuel crisscrossed them if they are too lazy to work and even when they do work a large majority apply for and receive supplies from the charity organizations. No wonder so many of these people come into the city in the fall and winter to be supported at the public charge. They seem to be the pets of Lexington, and while the white people are taxed within an inch of their lives, these favored negroes have the best of everything, employ a large body of police to look after them and a city court devotes its session almost exclusively to them. Never was there in any town such a favored class of citizens. It is wonder any of them stay in the country or other towns. Come on gentlemen of woolly heads and black skins, the people of Lexington will give you hearty welcome—food, feed and nothing to pay. The white trash have made ample provisions for you, and if your wants are not promptly attended to, there are henchmen and other little stores laid up for your accommodation.—Lexington Gazette.

T. J. Henry purchased last week a small farm near Ezel, from John A. Oldfield. He also sold his store of general merchandise to W. M. Kendall and bought from Mr. Kendall the John M. Prater farm on Licking river opposite about 400 acres, and the farm opposite West Liberty, containing 68 acres, and house and lot on East street.

Mr. Henry has 15 farms in Morgan and Magoffin counties, most of them elegantly timbered and full of canal and bituminous coal.—Morgan Messenger.

Captain Pat Panch, Deputy United States Marshal, started from this point on Saturday evening for Washington, D. C., with two boys, Zora Trumbo, aged 13, and Albert Barker, aged 14, where they are to be placed in the School of Reform. Zora Trumbo, last spring, stole from the postoffice at Morehead, some one, two and three cent coins to the amount of about sixty cents. He was tried in the Federal Court in Covington and last week returned to one year in the School of Reform at Washington. The boy is so small that when the Judge passed the sentence on him, he was compelled to partially rise from his chair in order to see the child over the desk. Albert Barker is from Bracken county, and at the same term of the Court he was sentenced to two years in the Reform School at Washington. His offense consisted in passing a counterfeit dollar. The Barker boy has lost one leg, having fallen under a car some years ago. The kind-hearted Marshal actually seemed to feel much worse at having to take the boys off than they did to go. His kind fatherly advice to them and the tender care he exhibited for their comfort, spoke more for his credit than bringing in a whole army of moonshiners could do.

We are glad to learn that the young gentlemen of your town and county have organized a debating club. The general design of the society as determined at the organization meeting Saturday night, is the discussion of questions of current interest, and such especially as will lead to those who participate a more exalted and accurate sense of the duties of citizenship. Incidental to this broader design will be the acquisition of a better knowledge of parliamentary usage, and a greater fluency in public address and in the art of effectively impressing opinion upon others. We trust that the truly estimable spirit in which this organization has been formed, will not be found lacking in leading to its future development an earnest and constant support. The young men who are in genuine sympathy with the aims herein expressed, and we understand, of age of seventeen, will we understand, be welcome into the membership. The next meeting will be upon Saturday night next, when all officers will be elected, and the first debate upon the question of the municipal ownership of water works will be held. The club holds its meetings at the rooms of the Y. M. C. A.

A New Departure.

Beginning with the 1st of January, 1894, we will adopt a STRICTLY CASH SYSTEM. We take this departure from the old established manner of doing business that has been so long in vogue in Kentucky, after due thought and deliberation, knowing it is not only to our interest, but that it is to the interest of every one. We are driven to this course by the great stringency in money matters, and the difficulty of collecting our accounts when due, the abuse of the Credit System being on the increase continually. To those who have kindly patronized us in the past, we extend our sincere thanks and trust they will realize the importance of this "New Departure" by continuing to give us their patronage.

God keeps a school for His children here on earth; and one of His best teachers is named Disappointment. He is a rough teacher, severe in tone and harsh in his wording, sometimes, but his tuition is worth all its costs. Many of our best lessons through life have been taught us by that stern old schoolmaster Disappointment.—Cuyler.

An apparatus to register the time taken by each person in using a telephone has been invented in Germany. It is called a "telephone-meter," and it is the design of the telephone companies to use its figures as a basis for their charges for the use of telephones. When this "meter" is attached to telephones talk over a telephone can be predicted, will be as concise as a telegraph message.

The town of Middleborough is without water, and its people are forced to take their thirst. The cause of the prevailing dryness is the dismantling of the machinery, alleged to have been done by the late engineer in revenge for being discharged. It was necessary to send a delegation to Covington to obtain from Judge Barr an order to the engineer to put the machinery in order or be punished for contempt.

One in seven of all deaths comes from Consumption. That's about the proportion. And almost every death from Consumption comes from neglect and delay. There's nothing in preventing the disease—delay in curing it. You can prevent it. You can cure it. If you'll act in time, with Dr. Farrow's Golden Medical Discovery, you can prevent it. And make you an easy victim to a curable disease of the system invites it. You must reach the disease through the blood, and the "Discovery" does it. It's the most potent and effective blood-cleanser, strength-restorer, and flesh-builder that's known to medical science. The curative action of the lungs starts called Consumption, and every form of scrofula and blood-taint, all yield to it. For Weak Lungs, Spitting of Blood, Bronchitis, Asthma, and all severe, lingering Coughs, it's an unparalleled remedy. And it's the only one that's guaranteed to do what it claims for it. If it fails to loose it or cure, you have your money back.

If you want something new for a Christmas present? Go to Mrs. Kate Clarke's; she has something for just any one. She will be satisfied with a very short profit.

There will be a Sunday ball put on for this place. The express Sunday balling will carry the ball both ways. The service will probably be ordered to begin next Sunday.

A postoffice inspector was here the last week, looking into the question of the removal of the postoffice to its new quarters. Looking throughout the town he has reported adversely to a removal.

You want an elegant Christmas present. Let us whisper to you where you may find something that will suit you exactly: Go to John W. Jones' on Main street, and see the new line he has on display.

Mr. J. O. Miller, our active and accommodating insurance agent, settled in a way that was most satisfactory with Mr. S. W. Gittell, the loss on his residence occasioned by the fire a couple of weeks ago.

Burton & Smith, the furniture men, have an elegant line of chairs, Couches, Hugs and Chairs. They specially desire to call attention to their line of Rockers. When comes to Christmas gifts they can just take your eye. Go to see them.

Mrs. Charles Russell, of this city, received a telegraph message bringing the sad intelligence that her father, R. L. See, had been drowned at Columbus, Ohio, on last Saturday. Her brother, Mr. See, stated at her place for Columbus. Mrs. Russell is a few months dead to a husband by a violent death, in a mill at Meigs, Tenn.

The January number of The Fun (reduced to 35 cents) will contain a thorough analysis of the phenomena of the recent panic and the great loss to be deduced from this experience. David A. Wells—the most remarkable of facts that Mr. Wells has taken up; and "this," he says, "the best thing by far that I have ever written."

Mrs. Mary V. Young received a telegram Sunday morning bearing the sad news that her sister, Jane Stanberry, of New York, had died very suddenly. Mrs. Young left the express Sunday evening to be present at the burial services, which took place in Cincinnati on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Young came home Saturday evening.

Many of our townspeople suffer from falls on the slippery pavements on Sunday and Sunday night. Mr. Mary Smith, caught with her fall sprained ankle. Mr. J. W. Hadden, this paper, came off with a broken bone in the right forearm. Many, many others suffer from injuries of various kinds caused by the slippery pavements, made so by the boys skating and sliding on them, a practice would be well to break up.

Judge Bennett, for the Court District, Saturday handed down the court's decision in the two cases affecting the right of the Frankfort lotteries and other lotteries to operate in this State. The Court holds that the franchise of the Lottery Company, it ever had any, is void. This sound the death-bell of the lotteries in this State; and Kentucky will no longer bear the uneasiness and reputation being the only State where a lottery franchise can exist.

RELIGIOUS.

Elder P. G. Lester preached at the house of Mr. James Ratliff, on Sunday afternoon, to the Bethel Episcopal congregation of Particular Baptists.

Rev. Buchanan, of Louisville, preached at the Baptist church last Sunday morning and evening to fine congregations. His sermons were the result of much study and were highly appreciated. He also made a talk Sunday afternoon to the Y. M. C. A.

Wednesday at seven o'clock, at the Baptist church, this city, Rev. J. L. Williams, pastor of the Harvard's Mill Baptist church, will preach. A cordial invitation is extended to everyone to hear Mr. Williams. Mr. Williams was a mountain boy uneducated, and was on his way to market with a raft of logs when he felt that he was called to preach the gospel.

Louisville Tobacco Market.
 Sales on our market for the week just closed amount to 4,732 hhds, with receipts for the same period of 3404 hhds. Sales on our market since January 1, amount to 133,386 hhds. Sales of the crop of 1892 on our market amount to 126,327 hhds.

Our market has been characterized this week by extremely heavy offerings of new burley tobacco, and the better grades are selling remarkably well, while the common grades, which constitute a large per cent. of the offerings, are somewhat lower. Frequent sales of good new burley are being made at prices ranging from $15 to $18, and a few hogheads have sold from $18 to $21.50. The market for old burley, all grades considered, has shown recent improvement.

The following quotations fairly represent our market for burley tobacco. (1892 crop.)

 Common colory lugs, $6.50 to $9.00.
 Medium to good colory lugs, $9.00 to $10.00.
 Common to medium leaf $9.00 to $15.00.
 Good to fine leaf, $15 to $18.
 Select wrappery styles, $18 to $26.
 GLOVER & DURETT.

The Solution Was an Easy One.

In a certain church in Ireland a young priest was detailed to preach. This occasion was his first appearance, and he took for his text: "The Feeding of the Multitude."

He said: "And they fed 10 people with 10,000 loaves of bread and 10,000 fishes."

An old Irishman said: "That's no miracle, begorra. I could do that myself," which the priest overheard.

The next Sunday the priest announced the same text, but he had it right this time. He said: "And they fed 10,000 people on 10 loaves of bread and 10 fishes."

He waited a second, and then leaned over the pulpit and said: "And could you do that Mr. Murphy?"

Murphy replied: "And sure, your reverence I could."

"And how could you do it?" said the priest.

"And sure, your reverence, I could do it with what was left over from last Sunday."—Ex.

The custom of bottling tears is peculiar to the people of Persia. There it constitutes an important part of the obsequies of the dead. As the mourners are sitting round and weeping, the master of ceremonies presents each one with a piece of cotton wool or sponge with which to wipe away the tears. This cotton wool or sponge is afterward squeezed into a bottle, and the tears are preserved as a powerful and efficacious restorative for those whom every other medicine has failed to revive. It is to this custom that allusion is made in Psalms lvi, 8: "Put then my tears into thy bottle."

Took Seven Bottles—Perfectly Well

Mr. Herman Dodds, of Chicago.

"I have been a victim of catarrh a long while. My nose and head were so stuffed up that sometimes I could not sleep at all during the night. A friend advised me to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. One bottle did me so much good I kept on; have now taken seven bottles and I feel perfectly well. Indeed, I feel almost like a new man. I am very thankful for what Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for me in relieving me of so trouble some a complaint."—H. W. Dodds, No. 2180 Bonaparte Street, Chicago, Ill.

Fantasy, 2:08, at three years, is the youngest 2:10 trotter.

Gulnette, 2:10, and Clover Leaf, 2:12, were gelded recently.

Of Director's fifteen heats in 2:10 or better, ten were made in races.

Corinne, 2:14, was shipped to Europe Saturday. She was purchased by Frailell George, of Bologna, Italy.

Director landed about $22,000 for Salisbury this year, and is the largest winner among the trotting brigade for 1893.

At the present time it does not pay to breed inferior stock, and it is to be sincerely hoped that it never will again.

Director's Flower, 2:12, by Director, is now owned by L. R. Rose, of Providence, R. I., who paid $5,100 for her at a New York sale last week.

This year's horse show was a great financial success, as is evidenced by the fact that the National Horse Show Association declared a regular dividend of 10 per cent, and an extra dividend of 20 per cent, a total of 30 per cent on the capital stock.

So trustworthy an authority as Crit Davis says that in his observation one smart cuss on the coronet has time and again spoiled a colt's chances to take his work cheerfully and naturally for almost an entire season, and that any attempt on the part of a trainer to give a horse track work without boots was sure to end in discomfiture. —Stock Farm.

Mascot and Flying Jib have each passed in 2:10 or better twenty times. Hal Pointer has eighteen 2:10 heats to his credit; Direct 16, Johnston 13, Guy II, Robert J. 10, Roy Wilkes 8 Manager 7, Jay-Eye-See 6, Blue Sign 6, Hal Dillard, May Marshall, Saladin, Silkwood, and W. Wood, each 4.

The Maryland Legislature has enacted a law, punishing by a fine of $1000, or imprisonment for one year, any person who shall advertise or offer the services of a stallion, to the public without first having the animal recorded with the County Recorder and taking out a license to do business. The law requires the owner to give the name, age, pedigree and record, if any; also description, terms and conditions upon which the stallion will stand for service.

A dispatch from Independence, Iowa, states that C. W. Williams notified R. Campbell, who holds a mortgage on his property, except his horses, for $100,000, that he (Campbell) could have, without foreclosure, the property which includes the Bush Park race track, the opera house, the electric street railway and Williams' residence. This leaves Williams practically short of his fortune, except that he will still own Allerton and a number of good colts and brood mares. Too much speculation ruined him. Williams got his start by selling Axtell for $105,000.

LAND, STOCK AND CROP.

J. D. Reid sold his crop of about 16,000 pounds of tobacco to Robert Souley, buyer for Liggett & Myers at 9 cents per pound.

Messrs. Steadman & Bowman the real estate brokers of this city, have sold to G. T. Higginbotham, formerly of Garrard, County, the farm of A. A. Kitzmiller one mile from the city on the Old Frankfort turnpike. The farm contains 129 acres and the price realized was $15,480.—Lexington Gazette.

See what cash will do at J. B. White's grocery:

Choice Mince Meat 84 cents pound.
